

Brief directions for getting to The Natural History Museum

The Natural History Museum is close to South Kensington tube station (Circle, District and Picadilly lines) and has good bus links. Full details can be found here: <http://www.nhm.ac.uk/visit-us/getting-here/index.html>

Walking from South Kensington station should take 5 minutes. Please enter via the Flett Theatre entrance on Exhibition Road from 9:30am.

Tea and coffee will be supplied on arrival. Please sign in and collect your badge. If you would like to visit the EMMA labs (Electron Microscopy and Mineral Analysis) during the lunch break please sign in, on the sheet provided, on arrival.
